WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

BREAKOUT BLOCK I: "Flowing with Fundamentals"

"NPHC Acknowledgement: Appreciating the Roots of Greek Culture" by Daniel Patton

Participants will learn how we can appreciate this culture but not appropriate and hopefully spark discussion in other chapters!

"Building Blueprints: Michigan Endowment Case Study" by Victor Em & Hudson Tang

The LFE Foundation believes that endowment programs provide alumni with a meaningful way to giving back through scholarships and other chapter-specific programs like career development.

"How to Become a Millionaire without Being Super Smart or Talented!" by Kam Huang

Participants will learn that anything is possible and that one should never stop dreaming or thinking big; walking away motivated and inspired knowing that becoming a millionaire is not only possible but very realistic with hard work and consistency.

BREAKOUT BLOCK II: "Into the Future"

"LiFE After College" by Winston Lee

Participants will attain more insight about post grad life and how to set themselves up for success after the undergraduate days.

"Finding the Right Mindset about Growth and Balance" by William Park

Participants will learn how to become more introspective, learn how to focus on creating and sustaining leadership qualities and how to balance life from work.

"A-Factor: Building the Lambda Creative Network" by Richard Ngo and Matthew Wright

Brothers will gain more exposure into the creative industry from bros who are professionals in the field, and Participants will learn more about how to pursue creative passions in ways that can turn profit and build a network.

BREAKOUT BLOCK III: "Blazing New Trails"

"How to Hack Travel with Points and Miles" by Dr. Bryan Dosono

Learn more about the world of travel hacking—the craft of maximizing frequent flyer miles and credit card points to earn free flights and accommodations. As a doctoral researcher, Bryan Dosono has flown

"How To Run Your Chapter Externally" by Van Dao

Participants will learn best practices of coordinating meaningful programs that benefit their community and university.

"How to Serve with the International Board" by Nicholas Dang

Participants will learn new member education practices from various chapters and from educators of different experiences. Participants to over a dozen countries and visited 25 states on a student budget, and has compiled a number of travel hacking resources for students and recent grads to experience more on their next trip with less.

will learn how to better navigate Rush in order to better plan for the future of the chapter

BREAKOUT BLOCK IV: "Paving Open Paths"

"New Member Education and the Path Forward" by Jeremey Dela Paz & An Nguyen

Participants will engage in a candidate conversation on the implementation and lessons learned from the Noble Brother Program.

"How To Run Your Chapter Internally" by Michael Seo & James Maynard

Participants will discuss best practices on chapter operations, finances, and conflict resolution among members.

"How to Mentor a Charter Class" by Zac Antonius

This workshop will help new grads and alumni members understand what goes on behind the scenes in serving as a Big Brother or NME role for prospective Interest Groups.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Attendance

Chapters are required to have the majority of their delegation in the general session each time roll is taken (9 am Saturday, 9:30 am Sunday, 5 pm Sunday). If the room is looking particularly empty, we may take roll at any time to ensure quorum is met.

Chapters that are absent without prior approval from your governor will be fined $100 USD for each missed roll call. Governors are empowered to fine chapters for excessive absence during any portion of Convention.

Conduct

We are guests at the Hilton's venues, and most of us are guests in Tampa. Be respectful of the hotel property and the staff and represent yourself and the Fraternity well in all of your actions and interactions. If you are asked to leave the hotel by hotel management, you will not be permitted to attend further Convention programming and you will not be given a refund.

Please review the following conduct guidelines:

Convention In-Person Participation Conduct

Emergency Contacts

Zac Antonius, Executive Director - (513) 888-1982

Ian Galope, Director of Programming - (425) 315-2497

SYANDS Syncs

Back by popular demand, the Convention team has paired attendees with an International Board member (formerly known as Convention Hosts), and this time, you grouped by crossing years and semesters! We want to decrease that first initial barrier when meeting new brothers from across the continent, and we hope this solution will work best for everyone. Please see the chart below for assignments.
